

Dear Wayne,

We are so pleased with the replacement door & windows your company has done for us.

Carl & Deans workmanship, is second to none their experience and craftsmanship is obvious.

We never felt they were rushing to finish the job, as Customers is very reassuring to feel that your job is not being rushed, but being done to a high standard, Please will you thank them on our behalf, not only for their high standard of workmanship, but also for their consideration of our home. They insured minimal disruption and no decorating needed. They are an asset to your Company,

Needless to say we would have no hesitation to recommend you to family and friends.

If future customers need recommendation we would be very happy to oblige. Wishing you all a very Happy Christmas & a Prosperous New Year

Yours Faithfully
Simon & Sue
